

COURSE: INSURANCE THEORY & PRACTICE

Course Objectives:

The course combines fundamental understanding of Insurance and Risk Management with current issues confronting the insurance industry and risk managers.

Some of the key topics examined are: trends in Risk Financing, Reinsurance and Alternative Risk Financing methods, Risk Communication and Environmental Risk Management.

Course Content:

- ☐ The Nature of Risk
- ☐ Environmental Risk
- ☐ E-business Risk
- ☐ Insurance Device
- ☐ Current Issues – Marketing, Underwriting, Claims Management,
- ☐ Private Insurance
- ☐ Insurance Institutions
- ☐ The Legal Framework
- ☐ Homeowner Risks
- ☐ Motor Risks

The Trainer – Dr Dexter Morse

Dr. Dexter Morse has considerable insurance and reinsurance experience in all leading insurance markets. He has held senior positions in the Insurance and Reinsurance arena, most recently as Senior Legal Counsel for a leading Reinsurer where he headed up their London Market North America Claims Management Team. Dexter has lectured extensively on Insurance and Law topics internationally and regularly contributes articles to industry publications.

RISK specializes in Training and Coaching in the areas of Management, Leadership, Insurance/ Reinsurance, Risk, Fraud, Law, Claims and Intercultural Issues.

This course is offered on-site to Insurers, Reinsurers, Law Firms, Loss Adjusters, Brokers, Management and Human Resource Professionals.

Further information under: info@risk.ae